quest, at the Belasco last night.

American domination against the picturesque background of native life was revealed in many films and colored slides, but the supreme interest of Mr. Newman's collection lies in the appallingly realistic panorama of the eruption of Kilauea, which, by day, visioned fountains of bubbling lava and at night was a sea of fire. Mr. Newman and his photographer spent twenty-eight hours at the rim of Kilauea to secure the pictures, which represent every phase of voicano action.

Progress in Church Fund Campaign. The work of raising $50,000 in fifty days to complete St. Paul's Catholic Church is progressing satisfactorily, it was announced by the leaders today, when it was pointed out that $21,000 of the amount has been raised. When the $25,-000 mark has been reached, it is said, work will be commenced on the edifice. Reports of the progress made were given at a meeting of the canvassers held at the church last evening, when Chairman Hickey, who is at the head of the work,
